Protection of personal data

Legal basis of the processing

The processing described below is carried out in accordance with Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 (hereinafter “the Regulation”). The lawfulness of the processing is based on Article 5 (1.a) interpreted in the light of Preamble (Recital 22), since it is necessary for the performance of tasks carried out in the public interest by the European Parliament.

Who is responsible for your data?

The data controller for this processing of personal data is the European Parliament and in particular Mr Stéphan JANSSENS (DG ITEC/CARE/WORKEXP).

What are your rights regarding your personal data and how can you exercise them?

You, as a data subject, or your legal representative when applicable, may exercise the rights indicated hereafter by sending a request directly to ITECServiceDesk@ep.europa.eu.

You have the right of access your personal data and relevant information concerning how the data controller uses them [Article 17 of the Regulation]. You have the right to obtain the rectification of your inaccurate personal data and, taking into account the purposes of the processing, of your incomplete personal data [Article 18 of the Regulation]. Under certain conditions, you have the right to ask that the data controller deletes your personal data or restricts their use [Articles 19 and 20 of the Regulation]. You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data, on grounds relating to your particular situation, at any time [Article 23 of the Regulation].

The data controller will consider your request, take a decision and communicate it to you.

You have the right to have recourse at any time to the Data Protection Officer of the European Parliament (DPO) via the email address data-protection@europarl.europa.eu and to the European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS) via the email address edps@edps.europa.eu.

What are the personal data used?

The data provided in the form. This includes your name, first and last name, signature and any other information provided by you in order to allow us to provide you with the related services.

Why are the personal data used and who can view them?

Recording and monitoring of the present request

The personal data collected in this document are firstly used to record, monitor and keep evidence of the present reception.

The helpdesk staff may have access to those personal data, since the information is stored in IT Service support management system (ServiceNow).

Execution of the present request to provide you with the related service

Then, the data provided in the form are secondly used to execute the present request, in the conditions indicated in this form. The requestor or his/her delegated person may receipt the IT equipment selected and described in the present form. In this context, personal data are processed to perform the necessary changes in the European Parliament's ICT Systems to allow this reception.

The execution of the request is carried out by the service collecting the data or by forwarding the relevant services in charge of its processing.

How long are the personal data kept?

For the personal data related to a ticket concerning you:

- They are kept for a maximum of five years from the closing of the ticket. After this period, the entire ticket is deleted from the database.
- The only exception will be the case in which one ticket is connected to another. In this case, the retention period for both will be five years starting from the closing of the most recent ticket.

For the personal data on the related service provided to you:

- These personal data are kept until the service is not provided to you anymore, unless a request from you is received to do otherwise.
- The personal data related to this reception is kept up to three months from the European Parliament's electronic storage facilities after the individual leaves the European Parliament. These data may be kept longer – up to three additional months – to complete your last requests or in case of investigations by competent authorities.
